

Your Partner For Success

Invoices by E-mail

As your Information Technology resource, we at MSI understand that in this day and age time is money. Together we need to forge ahead and embrace the technology that allows us to become more efficient. If we don't, we'll be left behind.

A true business partnership allows for a collaborative process that enables continuous improvement for both partners. So let's work together for success. Here at MSI, we've already successfully partnered with customers to accomplish mutual benefits in the utilization of today's technology. Why not be next?

Snail Mail

1. Get the mail from the postman
2. Open each individual mail piece
3. Sort each individual mail piece
4. Match MSI invoices to backup paperwork
5. Process invoices for payment

E-mail

1. Print pre-sorted invoices from e-mail
2. Match MSI invoices to backup paperwork
3. Process invoices for payment

Five steps or three? You decide...

Think of these benefits:

No more opening envelopes. No more paper sorting. No more lost invoices. Allow others in your office to search and view invoices from their computer. Save time by utilizing MSI as a technology resource.
